

“Types of Problem People”

Compiled by Rev. David J. Bauer

- The “Patriarch” or church “Doorkeeper.”
- The one who aspires to be leader (or perhaps desires the pastor’s job).
- The church hopper (no church seems good enough for him).
- The non-member who wants “membership privilege.”
- Children of board members finding themselves in leadership positions.
- The self-appointed “Church Corrector.”
- One who continually stirs discord amongst the brethren.
- One who is jealous of the pastor or other leaders in the church.
- One who has been “promoted” in leadership beyond his personal spiritual level.
- One with a quick temper, and quick to blow his top.
- One who is ultra critical.
- One who has a determination to keep the church small according to his personal “comfort zone.”
- One who manages the church finances in either a “tight” or “loose” manner. Also this one could be managing the church saving account as if it were a “retirement account.”
